SEVEN OFFICIALS ARE ACCUSED OF MISCONDUCT

Former Chief Of Police Files Charges And Demands Removal From Office

In a suit filed, Tuesday noon of this week, in the San Mateo County Superior court, the entire city council and the city clerk of Bayshore City are accused of alleged acts of malfeasance and misfeasance in the conduct of their offices.

The accusations are made by Claude C. Higgins, formerly chief of police of the newly incorporated municipality.

The five officials were accused of misappropriating and embezzling $2000 given to the city by the San Mateo County Greyhound Breeders' Association for relief purposes in Bayshore City.

Higgins' suit also charges that five members of the city council wrongfully entered into a contract between the city and the Bayshore Voters League and Voters League Hall Associations for lease of the League's meeting hall as a city hall, while they were officers and directors of the two associations.

Rental moneys received from the city treasury by the League Hall Association were used by Mayor Lawson and the councilmen to further their political aspirations, it is charged.

Higgins claims that on September 29, 1934, the breeders association, whose members race at the Bayshore dog track, made payable a check for $2000 to the city, signed by Peter P. O'Connor as secretary-treasurer, to be disbursed by the council to the sick, unemployed and indigent in Bayshore.

The same day, Higgins says, Mayor Lawson requested the city treasurer to indorse the check and present it to the Geneva-Mission branch of the Bank of America, obtain the money and deliver it to him personally.

It is declared Mrs. Riley cashed the check and delivered the money to the mayor.

"The $2000," Higgins alleges, "was never expended for or on behalf of sick and indigent persons and for

LOCAL CHILDREN HAVE ADEQUATE PLAY FACILITIES

Federal Recreation Project Offers Varied Program Throughout City

With the coming spring and good weather condiitons, Daly City children will have every possible advantage in worthwhile supervised recreation. The Federal Recreational Project, recently established in Daly City and sponsored by Councilmen Selmi, Sundermann and Twesten, will invite local children to participate in games and play at Vista Grande Park, Crocker Playground at Brunswick and Acton streets and at all school grounds (outside of school hours).

The Federal Recreational Project will also sponsor classes in handicrafts and arts for children and adults. Social gatherings and activities will be planned especially for young people.

Organization of softball leagues and other types of active competitive sports are listed on an early schedule. A staff of nearly twenty well trained local men and women, who are paid by the Federal Government, are now at the service of Daly City residents to plan recreational programs of general and individual interest.

Supervised play for children out of school hours will assist in developing the personality of participants. It will teach good sportsmanship and contribute to physical development. Hundreds of parents have expressed appreciation for the opportunities offered their children by the Federal Recreational Project.

Vista Grande Park is being developed for the comfort and convenience of local children and adults. Last December the Daly City Council purchased a site at the corner of Brunswick and Acton streets to be developed as a playground. Councilmen Selmi, Sundermann and Twesten have strenuously advocated and sponsored the development of parks and playgrounds for Daly City children.

Dog Survives Broken Back After Three Story Fall

EASTER EGG TREASURE HUNT PLANS BY DALY CITY RECREATIONAL GROUP

Junior and his sister will be looking forward to Saturday, April 16, with great impatience when the news of the annual celebration of the egg and treasure hunt reaches them.

The Daly City WPA Recreation Project is preparing elaborate plans for this event.

Assisting George Perada, the following group of Recreation leaders are arranging the program: Lena Bingham, Marie Demergasso, Leona Smith, Eddie Galli and George McLeod. Further particulars will be published in subsequent issues of the Daly City Record.

SHERIFF McGRATH AGAIN ON DUTY

Sheriff McGrath has returned to his duties in his office in Redwood City, after an illness of several weeks.

The sheriff is 75 pounds lighter than when he left the office, and said he was in excellent health. He spent more than three hours, early this week, in his office signing papers and catching up with his correspondence.

Senate Approves Increase In Judges

On Wednesday of this week, at Washington, the Senate approved by a 70 to 7 vote and sent to the House legislation which would create 22 new judgeships in various sections of the United States.

The legislation provides one additional judge for the Northern and Southern California districts.

MEETING AT CITY HALL AUDITORIUM

There was distributed with water bills today, to each water user in Daly City, the following notice, which is self explanatory:

CITIZENS OF DALY CITY:

Questions vital to the welfare of our city are being circulated by the candidates on both sides in the campaign for election on April 12, 1938.

So that voters of our city may be informed of what actually exists on the minutes, regarding the action of your city administrators, a meeting in the Daly City Auditorium, open to the public, is being called at 8 o'clock Monday evening, April 4th, 1938, in which questions will be answered by the Board of Councilmen.

By action of
BOARD OF CITY COUNCILMEN.

OFFICERS LIKELY SEEK PAY RAISE

The board of supervisors may be asked to restore salaries of some elective county officials to the level of the last County Government bill in 1931, it was revealed this week as the board and County Executive Rolison prepared to begin deliberation of the new salary budget.

Charter law, which requires that salaries of elective officials for the ensuing four years must be set 90 days prior to the August primary election, will bring the issue to a head within the next two weeks, it was said.

The primary is August 30. Allowing for the customary 30 days after passage, the salary budget must be adopted by the board on April 19, the day set for a public hearing on budget matters.

Before the salary schedule is adopted by the board, however, the county grand jury is expected to take a crack at it.

At last week's meeting, the jury voted to request a copy of the salary budget in advance, and promised to give it close scrutiny. The grand jury indicated at the time that it intends to take an active part in the budget discussion to the end of keeping county governmental expenditures to a minimum.

FIGHT IS EXPECTED ON CARFARE BOOST

Opposition to the Market Street Railway's 7-cent fare application has been recommended to the San Francisco Board of Supervisors by its Judiciary Committee.

The committee resolution will be before the board next Monday. The company's etitipon will be given a hearing by the Railroad Commission April 13.

Daly City Merchants Association Meeting

On Wednesday evening of next week the Daly City Merchants Association will meet in regular session.

In an effort to stimulate increase in home buying and population, it is expected a committee will be appointed to meet President Kahn of the Market Street Railway and endeavor to secure transportation for a five cent fare to the southern section of Daly City at an early date.

GOOD BRAKES MIGHT SAVE BAD BREAKS

Spring is the time when housewives take their curtains down and do a thorough job of cleaning up the house—and it is a good time for you, Mr. Motorist, to check over the car and make sure it won't be a death trap for your family.

Better than 15 per cent of all traffic accidents, according to the National Safety Council, are caused by automobile defects. Bad brakes and deficient or glaring headlights are the most common of these.

Do you know how it feels to press the brake pedal down to the floorboard, and to have your car keep on going? It is a sickening feeling. But it does not have to happen to you, if you take just a bit of precaution now. Remember, good brakes prevent bad breaks.—SAN MATEO COUNTY SAFETY COMMISSION.

EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE SLATED

Again this year, Peninsulans will attend Easter Sunrise Services at Emerald Lake Bowl, at the base of the giant cross just west of Redwood City.

Plans for the ninth annual rites, to be held April 17 at 5:33 a.m., were outlined at a meeting in Redwood City this week of a citizens' committee headed by Charles G. Lambert, former mayor there. The committee is being aided by the Redwood City Ministerial Union.

At the non-denominational services, which will be about a half hour in length, Redwood City's new municipal band of 40 pieces will furnish the instrumental music. A chorus to lead the singing is being organized under direction of Mrs. F. M. Perkins. Thomas M. Badley, Peninsula Y. M. C. A. secretary, will preside.

Principal speaker will be J. Douglas Ewan, pastor of the Burlingame Methodist Church.

The bowl, from which may be obtained a beautiful view of the bay and Santa Clara Valley, is reported to be in excellent condition despite the heavy rains. Parking space is available for more than a thousand automobiles. Annually thousands of worshippers make the early morning trek for the Easter services, although last year was an exception, when the rites were canceled due to the rains.

LOCAL "PROGRAM FOR PROGRESS" BUILDS LIBRARY — OPENS PARK IMPROVES FOUR MAJOR STREETS

Councilmen Selmi, Twesten And Sundermann Sponsor Civic Developments

Construction work has been started on a new library in Daly City. Early this summer the library will be open for public use. Careful planning of the "Program For Progress" and efficient economical administration of the city government made it possible for Councilmen Selmi, Sundermann and Twesten to sponsor construction of the library and start actual work on the site at this early date.

In addition to the steady development of the Vista Grande Park, the city has purchased a new playground site at the corner of Brunswick and Acton streets and by planting trees and shrubbery will make it a lovely spot. Playground equipment for children will be installed there.

Four streets of major importance in Daly City have been improved in the past two years. San Jose avenue has been widened and made into an excellent boulevard. To provide greater facility for local shoppers and thereby give Daly City merchants another advantage to attract customers, Hillcrest drive from Mission street to Mission circle has been widened six feet. This widening also solved a vexing traffic congestion

BOY SCOUTS TO SHOW EXHIBITS AND DO STUNTS

Festival Of Youth Will Be Real Boy And Girl Activity Exhibition

The Boy Scouts will be seen in camping demonstrations such as fire-building, cooking, tenting, signaling, first aid, bridge building, etc. Their main exhibit will have a camp scene with most of the equipment made by the boys themselves. It will also show several boys engaged at craft work, such as wood and metal work. For the entertainment part of the festival, the boys will appear in musical numbers and contests of various sorts.

The Girl Scouts will be seen in cooking, weaving, sewing, signaling and other activities of their group. Songs, skits and musical numbers will be their contribution to the general program. Their program will consist of projects by the various girls and patrols.

Cubs will be presented in acrobatic and athletic stunts and contests, drills and songs. Their exhibit will consist of cubcraft articles made for passing tests. A number of Cubs will also be engaged in craft work there. A festival telephone and telegraph system will be operated by the Cubs for the enjoyment of the visitors.

The Brownies, pre-Scout age girls, although only recently organized in Daly City, will participate in drills, songs and other activities. They will have an exhibit in connection with their big sister Girl Scouts.

As may be gathered from the foregoing, the main idea of the Festival of Youth is to show in a graphic way and at one time the various activities of these four youth groups. Such a demonstration has never before been attempted. Your time at the festival will be well spent for you will see America in the making—with patriotism, industry and character as the principal ingredients.

To bolster up the efforts of our boys and girls many professional entertainers have gladly consented to appear on our program. Among them are Erna Slee, steel guitar mastero with her club of music makers and Mr. Mildon, with his radio quartet.

MAHATMA GANDHI HAS BREAKDOWN

It has been reported from Calcutta, India, that Mohandas K. Gandhi had suffered a "fairly bad" breakdown in health after he attended a conference on village education and rural uplift at Berbhoi Orissa, early this week.

CHARGE POLITICS IS ONLY REASON OF ACCUSATIONS

Claim Made Explanation Could Have Been Easily Obtained By Sincere Seeker.

Mayor John P. Lawson of Bayshore City, on Wednesday, branded as a "political move on the eve of election," the civil action of ex-Police Chief Claude C. Higgins, filed earlier in the week, charging the mayor and four other city officials with "embezzling" $2000 of relief money given the community by the San Mateo County Greyhound Breeders' Association in 1934.

"We have an election in Bayshore on April 12," said Mayor Lawson. "I am a candidate for reelection. So is Councilman A. L. Herrmann, another of the defendants. This suit is nothing more than a last-minute political move of our adversaries.

"I am entirely innocent of any wrongdoing. So are the other officials accused by Mr. Higgins.

"The $2000 check in question which Mr. Higgins says was given the city on September 29, 1934, by the greyhound people for relief purposes, actually was given to the building fund of the Bayshore Voters League. We will produce photostatic copies of the check to prove this. As a matter of fact the greyhound association gave three checks, the first for $2000 and the others for $1000 each, to the league's building fund.

"A $2000 check was given to the city for relief purposes by the greyhound people at a later date. It was deposited in the city relief fund, and was used to pay grocery bills of families on relief, and other relief measures.

"The other checks given to the league's building fund, had nothing to do with the city, so that Mr. Higgin's charges that we were illegally

EAGLES TO HAVE COUNTY MEETING

Finals preparations are being made by Chairman Otto Schramm and his committee for the big time to be given by the Eagles of San Mateo County in Fraternal Hall, South San Francisco, on April 22.

Among the notables who plan to be present are State President William Hornblower, State Secretary William R. Hagerty and State Organizer D. D. Heagerty.

The drill team of Golden Gate Aerie No. 61 will assist in the initiatory work. From the latest reports received by Chairman Shramm a class of 100 new members will be inducted into the five aeries. This class of candidates will honor all past presidents of the combined aeries.

The officers for that evening will be selected from among the past presidents of years gone by.

Be sure and attend brother Eagle.

Recreation Service Uses School Yards

Not only during school recess will the school yards of Daly City resound to the shouts of happy youngsters, but also after school hours may be heard joyful sounds issuing in lusty yells from the throats of boys and girls in happy play.

Through the cooperation of the City Council of Daly City and the Board of Trustees of the Jefferson Grammar School District the school playgrounds were put at the service of the Daly City WPA Recreation Project (sponsored by the City Fathers) for recreation purposes.

Every afternoon, after school hours, recreation leaders will be stationed on these grounds to direct the youngsters in play activities of Bread Pudding! And How! Yum, Yum!

The old slogan, "Henry Warshawski just had to do it. Do what? Carry almost everything," might be parodized to read thus: "Henry Warshawski just had to do it. Do what? Eat bread pudding, because it is so good."

Lucky fellow, Henry, not only because you may eat bread pudding to your heart's content, but because that little mother of yours knows how to make it and is still here to watch her son enjoy the fruit of the recipe that she has carefully guarded through the years to pass on to her daughter-in-law, who is now assembling the wholesome ingredients true to form.

Following is the method for makmaking this

School Children Special Matinee

The San Francisco Federal Theater Project is inaugurating a new policy of devoting Saturday afternoons to special plays for children. With the cooperation of various school boards in the Bay area the play "Pinocchio" has been presented on Saturdays for some weeks. Its success has been such that it will be retained throughout the remainder of March and all of April. Each Saturday afternoon every seat in the house is occupied by children and their parents.

Through school principals arrangements have been completed whereby school children may obtain special rate tickets for the children's matinees of "Pinocchio." "Pinocchio" employs a cast of 65 adult professional actors and has special music, scenery, lighting effects and colorful and fantastic costuming. All school children's special tickets are good for any performance during the run of "Pinocchio."

Utah Jurist To Face Theft Charges

Justice of the Peace Scipio J. Kenner of Bingham, Utah, is pictured in San Francisco city prison shortly after he was taken into custody on a telegraphic warrant from Salt Lake City. Kenner, who has only one leg, was picked up on the "Skidway" or "Street of Forgotten Men," but police did not know with what he was charged. Later Kenner told authorities that he eked out a meager living as justice of the peace, his income a percentage of fines imposed, amounting to about $30 a month. Two months ago, he confessed, he took about $1000 of collected fines and vanished. He lost his leg ten years ago in a mine accident.

School Kids Enjoy Visit To Bakery

Last Friday the children of the first grade, in Jefferson Elementary School, visited the Geneva Bakery on San Pedro avenue in Colma.

Mary Purcelli, a first grader, daughter of the proprietor of the bakery, led the way and showed them around.

As most of the baking is done at night, only one baker was working. The children saw the huge ovens, the machines for mixing bread and quantities of sacks of flour. They watched the baker put rolls into the big oven. Just before leaving, Mrs. Purcelli made a joyous finish to this interesting trip by presenting each child with a cookie.

Last year Woodrow Elementary won first and second prize, and Jefferson School third prize, together with all honorable mentions given posters throughout the county. This poster work is done under the expert instruction of Mrs. R. Corral, art supervisor of the Jefferson District. Superintendent Crane is rightly proud of the many awards his schools have received in recent months.

Lesson Sermon Of Christian Science

"The world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever." These words from I John comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, April 3, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Unreality." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shall not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour" (Lev. 19: 15).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "Science reveals material man as never the real being. . . . Personality is not the individuality of man. A wicked man may have an attractive personality. . . . Man's spiritual individuality is never wrong. It is the likeness of man's Maker" (p. 491).

Westlake avenue has been cut through and permanently paved from Niantic avenue to Junipero Serra boulevard. This particular piece of work completes a short, direct and convenient connection from Mission street to the boulevard. At the council meeting, Monday evening of this week, bids were let to pave the uper end of Templeton avenue. Work will start immediately on the project and will give the residents of the upper Crocker tract a much needed improvement. State gas tax money was used to complete all four of the street projects.

Councilmen Selmi, Sundermann and Twesten have energetically and consistently worked for civic progress in Daly City. The library, parks and playgrounds and street projects are only a few of the many improvements which they, as members of the city council, have sponsored and carried, or are carrying, through to Completion. Their "Program For Progress" is actually a working plan for the steady healthy growth of this community.

"The defendants Lawson, Smith, Parker, Shaw and Riley, after collecting and receiving the $2000 belonging to and for the use of the city, did not account for the same with the city clerk on October 1, 1934 and immediately thereafter pay the same into the city treasury.

"The plaintiff is informed and believes, and upon such information and belief, alleges the fact to be that said defendants have misappropriated, illegally obtained and embezzled the $2000, and further that said sum of money was never used by the defendants for relief purposes."

In conclusion, Higgins asserts that "all of said acts of malfeasance and misfeasance in office committed by the defendants were committed knowingly and wilfully; that said acts constituted a violation of section 886, chapter 7, act 5227 of the general laws of the state, and "demands that said defendants immediately be removed from office."

Higgins' attorney, Frank A. Flynn of San Francisco, former superintendent of the San Francisco municipal airport at Mills Field and one-time counsel for the Bayshore Sanitary District Board, said that possible criminal action in the case is "up to the district attorney and the county grand jury."

Flynn said that the allegations had been investigated by the last grand jury. "It declined to take action in the situation," Flynn commented.

The attorney said he has "no idea" how the $2000 gift from the breeders association was spent. "All we know and can prove is, that the money was not used for the purpose for which it was intended—aid of the sick and unemployed," the attorney declared.

The ordination will be followed by a reception at the home of the young man's parents.

Hold April Fool's Masquerade Party

Ship 149 has been making serious plans for a party to be held Saturday evening, April 2, at Firehouse No. 5. It will be a combination masquerade and April Fool's Party, although April Fool's Day will already have passed.

Each boy has contributed a small amount for the purchase of refreshments, decorations, etc., for only formal functions can be sponsored officially by the ship. Most of the boys are also planning to bring a devoted partner, but there are some unlucky ones who will have to go alone.

Anyway, all those participating in this joyous event are sure to have a good time.

PRAYER

God looks not at the oratory of your prayers, how elegant they may be; nor at the geometry of your prayers, how long they may be; nor at the arithmetic of your prayers, how many they may be; nor at the logic of your prayers, how methodical they may be; but the sincerity of them he looks at.—Brooks.

JUNIOR COLLEGE TO DISPLAY ART AT SPRING SHOW

To Send Coed Delegates To University Of California For Discussions

San Mateo Junior College golfers will compete against the Stanford Freshman team, Saturday, on the Stanford course. The Mateans have had few matches as yet because of the wet weather.

A large cast has been named for the college play, "Stage Door," which will be rendered in May. The cast is one of the largest ever assembled at the Junior College.

The Junior College art department will send twelve pieces of student work to the annual spring art display which will be arranged at the de Young Museum in San Francisco, starting April 1. Eight northern California junior colleges will have their student work on exhibition.

This coming Sunday the Junior College will send two coed representatives to the University of California to take part in a student discussion regarding such matters as the honor system, housing and student organizations.

Tuesday evening of next week, County Treasurer A. H. Sagehorn will talk at the Junior College from 7:15 to 8:10 on "County Finance." The talk will precede the regular forum meeting and is open to the public.

A "Fools' Frolic" dance will be held this Friday evening, emphasizing the April fool's idea. An unusual feature is that each girl will invite her escort for this particular dance.

Speakers from the outside who have addressed junior college groups recently included one who spoke on mining engineering in South America and another who discussed earthquakes and the building of structures to withstand the quakes.

Faculty snapshot: President Charles "Jum" Morris—educated at Stanford: he was a noted trackman while there. Also got his nickname there through his size, for the orignial "Jumbo" was shortened to "Jum". Headed Modesto Junior College before coming to San Mateo. In addition to his work at the college is active on state committees dealing with education.

A London court decreed that a laundry company had to pay $165 to a ballet troope, on the dancers' complaint that the laundry had shrunken their tights so that they could not be worn without splitting.

Spends Three Days With Father's Body

Janyce Kingston

Janyce Kingstan, 5, of Seattle, who did not worry about her "sleeping" father, Everett Kingston, 27, because she was a "good girl." After three or four days a next door neighbor was attracted by the child's story that her "father was sound asleep" for a long time and that she was unable to "waken him." Investigation proved the man had died from cerebral hemorrhage at least three days before. Mrs. Kingston was in a hospital having a baby.

Wheeler-Lea Bill — Congress has completed action on the Wheeler-Lea bill strengthening the police powers of the Federal Trade Commission. Sixty days after Presidential aprpoval the act goes into effect. This is all the time the business men have to revise any selling practices that might have deceived the public or that may be unfair methods of competition. Schools Should Teach Children To Avoid Traffic Perils—Safety education in the schools really educates the children and saves their lives. From 1926 to 1935 child deaths intraffic decreased eighteen per cent while deaths of adults increased ninety-one per cent. The greatest gains have been with grammar school children. These are the children influenced by teaching in the schools. High schools need training courses for drivers to carry on the safety idea with the young people about to begin driving. Pre-school children as a group have not been consistently and effectively trained to keep off the streets, and the result is a high death rate for that age. Cities until recently received the blame for an undue proportion of motor vehicle fatalities because the victims of accidents on the rural highways were brought in and died in city hospitals. The Bureau of the Census corrected this error and in 1934 showed that two thirds of the traffic fatalities occurred on rural highways. It is estimated that in 1936 the death totals were 11,800 urban and 26,000 rural. As an aid in safety education, the United States Department of Agriculture has published the pamphlet "Guides to Traffic Safety." It outlines the best methods known today for securing traffic safety. The discussion is brief but comprehensive, summarizing the traffic safety situation. This pamphlet should prove of great value to municipal or town safety commissions, or councils, grammar and high school teachers, parent teacher associations, librarians, to clubs and chambers of commerce, and individual citizens eager to understand the safety situation. The report may be obtained by writing to my office.

ORGANIZATION OF FIRE COMPANY IS CELEBRATED

Members And Friends Enjoy Festivities To Commemorate 25 Years After

On March 25, 1913, several progressive citizens met and organized what is now known as Station No. 4, Daly City Fire Department.

On Saturday evening of last week the members of this station held a 25 years anniversary dinner dance in their quarters on Peoria street.

Besides the members and their wives, they had as honored guests Judge and Mrs. Wade Clay, Mayor and Mrs. Paul Selmi, Councilman and Mrs. Julius Twesten, Councilman and Mrs. J. J. Fahy, and Councilman H. Sundermann and E. Cavagnaro, Commissioners and wives L. Shaw, E. Forsell, J. Ferro, E. Cuneo, R. Ennis, G. Volkman, Assistant Chief and Mrs. Fritz Hanson, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kennedy.

A delightful and tasty dinner of salad, fried chicken and tagliarini were served by Mrs. Grace L. Augustier, assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Domenici and Mrs. Jessie Curtin.

Between courses A. L. (Barney) Hilton was called up and presented with a handsome gold embossed badge that the company had procured to commemorate his 25 years of active service in the company. Barney is the only member of the original group now in the service. He was elected at the first meeting as treasurer and is still holding down that job.

At the conclusion of a good dinner the floor was cleared and dancing was enjoyed by those present until the wee small hours of the morning.

The affair was voted a grand success by all those attending.

NO HARM DONE

. . . Which reminds me of the story they used to tell of a shiftless character in Gallipolis who piled into bed one night, shoes, clothes and all. After a while his wife shook him: "Get up, you got your shoes on."

To which he mumbled, "That's all right, they ain't my good ones."—O. O. McIntyre in New York American.

Meets Thursdays 7 to 9 p. m. at Nazarene Church, Vista and Santa Barbara

(Scout Angelo Ditty, Troop Rep.)

Considerable activity is going on in the troop relative to the Festival of Youth. Last week's meeting was devoted largely to things concerning the fesitval and the Scoutmaster asked that each patrol be able to report some actual accomplishment at the next meeting.

The Waterdog patrol was warmly praised by the Scoutmaster for having all eight members present and in uniform. This patrol met on Monday evening and worked on rustic willow baskets and completed seven. The baskets are of the hanging type and are to be sold at the festival.

Rustic wood is to be used extensively in decorating the Boy Scout section at the festival. Several trips have been made to the Willows in "Soy Bean" to get material.

Work has begun on putting the Vista Grande School basement in shape for the festival and the selling of Credit Tokens is progressing nicely.

An Easter week vacation camp is being planned. It will be at the Willows and will be of about three days duration. The time will be largely devoted to work on securing material for the festival and of cutting and fitting it into shape.

EXPERIENCED HOUSEWIFE CLUB

(By Maude LaRue Ives)

Some time ago the members of the Experienced Housewife Club wrote letters to various localities of the state of Wyoming seeking recipes and historical data. The first reply received from "The Range" was postmarked Cheyene and the second originated in the office of The Buffalo Bulletin of Buffalo, Wyoming. Like the Cheyenne literature, printed in part in the Record several weeks ago, it is vibrantly colorful in its portrayal of those early pioneer days during the winning of the west. It is addressed to Mrs. H. Elmers, 137 Miriam street, who kindly submitted it for publication. The letter follows:

"The assignment which you have asked me to volunteer for is quite a large one and recipes to a man mean but little until they have been produced in food form and placed in front of him at the table but I will try to supply the information you have asked for and hope that you find it satisfactory.

"It so happens that at this time I have in my files a list of choice recipies of women prominent in the state of Wyoming, and, with the aid of the Buffalo cook book can suply you with several recipies. You did not state what kind you wanted so I'll mix them up. The recipies will be found on attached sheets.

As Buffalo abounds in early history, historical landmarks, famous people and great accomplishment it will be very difficult to pick out what might be of interest to people in California and Daly City. I will endeavor to give, as briefly as possible some of the most important points in answering your list of questions.

"I suppose that the city slogan would be: Eastern Gateway to the Big Horn Mountains and Yellowstone Park—Playgrounds of America.

"In early history this vicinity figured prominently in the settling of the West. Wyoming became a territory in 1868, the county government of Johnson county, of which Buffalo is the county seat, was set up in 1879 and the land for the original townsite was dedicated to the City of Buffalo in 1884. But years prior to these important happenings there had been trappers, gold seekers, immigrant trains, bands of Indians and government troops passing and repassing through this section. It is in this locality that the Indian made his last stand, to Wyoming and Montana were driven the huge herds of Texas cattle and within the span of a man's lifetime have come changes that have brought the West from its virgin state into that stage of develoepement equal to any other in modern America.

"For her famous people Buffalo has J. Elmer Brock, son of one of the pioneers who still lives and is now Deputy Sheriff here (A. L. Brock), who is the vice president of the American National Livestock association, Mrs. E. V. Kelly, department president of the Wyoming Legion Auxiliary, and my own father, F. E. Lucas, who was Secretary of State from 1923 to 1927 and served as acting governor during the term of office of both Gov. William Ross and his wife, Gov. Nellie T. Ross. As you know Wyoming was the first state to have equal suffrage for men and women. In addition to these named there are about 20 men still living in the county who were here 50 years ago and who were at that time 21 years of age. (A. L. Brock has the list of these men) Living here today is the first male white child to be born in Johnson county 1879. This is J. W. Stevenson. Mrs. Verna Keays, designer of state flag.

"In mentioning the early history of this section I forgot to include the Johnson County Cattle war which took place in the early '90's. There are a large number of the men who figured in this event and members of their families still residing here and after the passing of over forty years it is a sore subject and one that is little talked.

"Landmarks of history would be old Ft. Phil Kearny, Wagon Box fight site, Fetterman Massacre site, Ft. Reno, old Trading postoffice and store, Dull Knife battle site, Ft. McKinney, Bozeman trail, Douglas trail and the Gammon ranch where the Cattle War was ended. These are but a few of the many places of interest in the Buffalo locality.

"The accomplishments of the city are numerous. As far back as I can remember and that is nearly 35 years residents here have enjoyed city water and electric service. We have two school plants, one for children in the grades and the other for high school students, churches of all denominations, a municipal park and large outdoor swimming pool maintained for the free use of all, an athletic field, ample electric facilities, natural gas, coal, public library, good roads, railway service, plane service, etc. For recreation there is a golf course and sports of all kinds, big game hunting, fishing and an enjoyable climate.

"Stockraising and farming are the principal industries but there is some mining and timber operations carried on.

"I give you the following names for reference if what I have written is not sufficient; all addresses Buffalo: John C. Flint, secretary Buffalo Commercial club; T. J. Gatchell, Howard Lott, historians.

Very truly yours,
C. VANCE LUCAS"

OBSERVATIONS OF GOINGS ON IN NATION CAPITAL

The New Archives Building —Treasure Chest For Gold And Silver? No, Films

(By Hart Goodrich)

What would most of us give to hear the voice of George Washington, Thomas Jefferson or the famous "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death" of Patrick Henry! We can't hear them, but future generations of Americans may hear the addresses of every President since Harding, as well as other important speeches.

In the "little theater" of the Archives Building in Washington, President Roosevelt recently listened to the recording of his own inaugural address, just as in centuries to come thousands may hear his now famous "My friends" greeting in his fireside chats.

Here are carefully guarded more than 1,000,000 feet of World War pictures, and also many other films of deep historical significance. These pictures are frequently shown in the specially designed and constructed auditorium, the acoustic properties of which are reputed to be the most perfect in the world.

Among the interesting films already stored are educational pictures from the Department of Agricuuture and the Byrd Polar Expedition film, pictures depicting the tribal life of the American Indian and thrilling pictures of the Coast Guard and its rescue activities.

Little was known of film-testing to preserve films for an indefinite period a few years ago. However, through the scientific experiments of the Bureau of Standards and the co-operation of the National Research Council, the life of films is now prolonged from 25 to at least 500 years and perhaps permanently.

So perfectly has the fire hazard been solved that a major fire in the main building is practically impossible. An added precaution in this isolated "no man's land" is the automatic sprinkler system in the vaults and also in the nearby offices. Many brass gadgets from the sprinkling system dangle from the ceilings—and should the temperature rise a certain degree above the maintained 40 degrees in the vaults, or a fire break out, the lead fuse would melt—open the valves and the water would pour from the sprinklers.

For further safety—in the corridor end of the vault is a tricky 18x20 inch shutter, held open by an ordinary white string—strong, of course, but not fireproof. Should a fire break out the string burns and the door closes, preventing the fire and fumes from escaping to other parts of the building.

In the event of spontaneous combustion, the fire would be confined to one nitrate film and its own container, and no other film would be damaged—not even its nearest neighbor.

The films are kept in the very best condition by scientific air-conditioning and air ducts. The electric lights are inclosed in vapor-proof globes and give off no heat. The insulated flue, from which the vaults are vented to the roof, permits the escape of any products of decomposition or of combustion. In other words, the National Archives' newly-installed preservative and safety equipment controls the temperature, humidity, air content, heat conduction and air convection.

In this newest repository is preserved not only history of national events, but history of the scientific progress of motion pictures and sound recordings—from the still pictures and the old phonograph to the great theatrical, moving, color pictures synchronized with sound—and, as time goes on, perhaps films of which we in this generation have never dreamed!

An electric light bulb has burned continuously for 28 years in the hallway between the stage and dressing rooms at the Palace Theater in Fort Worth, Tex.

HOLD DISCUSSION IN JOURNALISM AT PRESS SESSIONS

University Of California Sponsors Meet For High And Jaysee Students

The Fifth Annual Press Convention, sponsored by the University of California for high school and junior college journalists, was the most successful held to date. Sessions began last Thursday and concluded with the luncheon Saturday afternoon. Over 500 students from all sections of California attended the convention along with more than three score instructors in Journalism.

This year the plan followed was a College of Journalism with the various officials of the average college in charge of the several departments. Members of the staff of the Daily Californian were the professors who conducted regular class work. On the final day diplomas were awarded to those who had successfully completed the various courses. Prizes were awarded to students who were outstanding in several fields of writing.

John B. Long, manager of the California Newspaper Publishers Association, was the featured speaker at the Friday luncheon. He discussed briefly the background that a successful journalist should have, emphasizing ancient, modern and American history, as well as economics and a broad knowledge in the field of literature.

The commencement luncheon, held on Saturday, had as its featured speaker John B. Hughes, famed radio commentator, who stressed several of the important phases of news broadcasting. Mr. Hughes read from certain communications he had received from listeners, and showed how difficult it is for some listeners to gain the correct meaning of the news that is broadcasted. Mr. Hughes is of the opinion that the radio is an important adjunct to the newspaper, and that it will not replace the printed page.

The Journalism advisors had a two-hour meeting on Saturday morning, which was presided over by Clive M. Saiz, president of the Central California Journalism Advisors Association. The session was addressed by Dr. Franklin Palm, professor of modern European history, who presented as his subject "The World Unrest." Professor Charles Raymond of the Department of Journalism, also gave a brief address.

Are You Legally Eligible To Go?

Legal requirements for admission to San Mateo County's Community Hospital, long a subject of dispute, were codified recently by Dr. Charles C. Gans, director of health and welfare. The 10 classes of patients who may be admitted:

1. Any person unable to pay wholly or in part for necessary medical care without depriving himself or his dependents of basic necessities of life.
2. Dependents of such persons.
3. Persons in active stages of tuberculosis, required to pay when able to do so.
4. Physically defective or handicapped persons under 18 when parents or guardians are not financially able to secure proper care and when such admission has been duly authorized as provided by law.
5. A psychopathic, narcotic addict, or habitual inebriate temporarily in custody.
6. Persons to be quarantined or isolated in the county hospital because of contagious, communicable, or infectious disease.
7. Persons confined to jail who require hospitalization when superior court orders admission.
8. County employes injured in course of employment when hospitalization is reasonably required to cure and relieve effects of injury.
9. Persons in need of immediate hospitalization on account of accident or sudden sickness or injury.
10. Any recipient of blind, aged, or orphan aid.

Each patient, Dr. Gans has ruled, must sign a request for admission affirming facts which make him admissible, promising to take medical and surgical treatment prescribed, and agreeing to abide by hospital rules.

SOLD

The tailor was selling his best friend a new suit. He was raving about the garment.

"I'm telling you, Harry," he said, "that even your best friend won't recognize you in that suit! Just take a walk outside for a minute and get the feel of the garment."

Harry went out and returned a moment later. The proprietor rushed up to him with a happy smile.

"Good morning, stranger," he beamed. "What can I do for you?"—Tit-Bits.

Mayor Lawson said the league hall is owned by more than 300 members, who belong to a nonprofit organization. The council drew rental contract with the whole membership, Lawson declared.

Foreman Percy J. Shaw of the grand jury said today the inquisitorial body would "follow developments," but was inclined to believe it was the outgrowth of Bayshore "politics."

District Attorney Ferrell said his office would move cautiously. "I don't think we would take any action until after the municipal election," he declared. "That will give the political atmosphere a chance to clear."

He said it was "unusual" that the embezzlement charges, dating back to 1934, hadn't been brought to his attention sooner than three years later. Ferrell added that he did not believe that a civil action could bring about removal of the officers. Removal could be accomplished only by recall proceedings, or if the grand jury voted accusations forcing the accused to stand trial in superior court, he said.

Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie And Simone Simon Hit Has 'Umph'

"Love And Hisses" Great New-Idea Musical Featuring Bert Lahr, Joan Davis, Dick Baldwin

Walter Winchell and Ben Bernie, those famous feudists who put puns into their punches, are back for the greatest return match in hisstory in "Love And Hisses," coming Sunday to the Daly City Theater. This time the reason for all the barbed wit is the fight over their new sweet-hot from Paris, the saucy and vivacious Simone Simon, who sings operatic arias and popular ballads for the greatest surprise of the year.

Brand new hot-and-hissing songs by Gordon and Revel head the musical score, with additional hit parade leaders by Pollack and Mitchell, Raymond Scott and Zeno and Irwin.

Darryl F. Zanuck, maker of the screen's biggest hit shows, was in charge of production and Sidney Lanfield directed. Lanfield also made "Sing, Baby, Sing," "Thin Ice," "One In A Million" and "Wake Up And Live."

The result is laughs and kisses, music and misses, and a show that's got "ummph!" the new 1938 requirement of musical comedies.

MOST PAPERS DON'T

The Bolckow (Mo.) Herald carries no one on its staff for ornamental purposes, it seems. At its masthead is printed the following: "J. I. Bennett, editor; Noel C. Bennett, associate editor; Gordon Bennett, secretary. We need no treasurer."

When Frank Jones of Chicago tried to flirt with a girl on the street, she knocked him down, had him arrested, and he was fined $50.

Information—The rate for political advertising in the Daly City Record is $1 (one smacker) per column inch—to be paid in advance!
